

FIFTEENTH LEGISLATURE.

SKETCHES OF LEGISLATORS AND STATE OFFICERS

1876-1878.

BY JOHN CARDWELL.

AUSTIN, TEXAS:
DEMOCRATIC STATESMAN-PRINT.
1876.

REPRESENTATIVE HENRY SNEAD, also a mulatto, was born in slavery in Eastern Texas, in 1849 ; now lives in Waller county and is engaged in farming.

He is a Republican ; was a party nominee, and was elected to the Legislature, without opposition, by 2323 votes. He is a quiet man, of unassuming manners, and is holding his first public position.
